

P. L. L., (1860,) art 4, sec. 419.

478. The said inspector shall, at all times when required, weigh hemsps, cables, anchors, dye-woods, barks, roots, etc.

1864, ch. 384.

479. In addition to the charge hereinbefore authorized for the use of the State hay scales, the inspector shall be entitled to demand and receive fifteen cents for each and every load of hay or straw which shall remain half an hour on the premises after the weighing thereof, but shall be removed before night, and thirty cents for each and every load which shall be left on the premises until the next morning.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 421.

480. The weighing apparatus shall be adjusted at least once in six months by the standard of weights for the city of Baltimore, the expenses of which, together with all the expense for repairs, shall be paid by the inspectors.

1864, ch. 384.

481. The inspectors shall severally account for, under oath, and pay over to the treasurer, quarterly, all moneys received by them as inspectors, after retaining for their services three-fourths of all moneys received under sections 473 and 477, and one-fifth of all moneys received under section 479 of this sub-title of this article.

1867, ch. 241.

482. It shall be the duty of the inspector of hay and straw having charge of the eastern hay scales at Canton, in the city of Baltimore, to weigh all cattle and hogs required by law to be weighed, which may be brought to said scales for that purpose; and the said inspector shall be entitled to demand and receive for the use of the State, for the first time of weighing any live stock, except sheep, required by law to be weighed, two cents for every hundred weight, and one cent per head for every sheep; and for every second and subsequent weighing, for cattle and hogs, two cents for every thousand weight, and sheep, one cent for every thousand weight, and all live stock not required to be weighed, the sum of six cents for every thousand weight.
